

Green Badger Sales and Marketing Internship

Sales and Marketing Internship

Are you looking for an opportunity to learn the fundamentals of how a startup works, while plugging in your talents? The ideal candidates are enthusiastic, energetic and prepared to work in a fast-paced team environment. Spring internship will last through early May with multiple opportunities to do work that interests and challenges you. Responsibilities will vary. You need to be able to write, use social media, be good at self learning, and not afraid of making phone calls as basics, and then be willing to learn everything else (we will teach you).

We're a tight knit group and share responsibility. We communicate openly and encourage input from all team members.

Hours per week: 15-20

Location: Savannah, GA